ABOUT ME

I thrive on capturing the unique love stories of each couple I encounter. With a genuine love for people, my aim is to freeze authentic moments that unfold during the celebration of love. I don't just photograph weddings; I become a storyteller, preserving the raw beauty of connections through my lens. Let me join you on this journey, where my passion meets expertise to create timeless snapshots of your love story.

Embarking on the journey of capturing love stories is not merely a profession for me; it's an exhilarating adventure fueled by spontaneity, creativity, and the extraordinary moments that make your connection truly unique. My passion lies in weaving narratives that transcend the conventional, embracing the wild, crazy, and wonderfully unpredictable facets of your love story. In my world, the camera is not just a tool; it's a companion that dances along with the rhythm of your laughter, the warmth of your embraces, and the genuine spontaneity that unfolds when two souls deeply in love come together.

I believe in curating moments that tell your story authentically, steering clear of staged poses in favor of genuine emotions and interactions. For me, every couple is not just a client; you are cherished co-conspirators in crafting a visual symphony of your unique bond. I understand that the essence of your connection lies in movement, in the shared adventures, the whispers, and the bursts of laughter that paint your love in vibrant hues.

OUR JOURNEY STARTS HERE.

THE BEST SELLER

Every wedding is a story, so I'll be covering it from start to finish, which means from the bride's preparations right through to the late evening. A wedding is full of emotion, joy, tears and smiles. You get the impression that time flies by at an unbelievable pace, you spend months preparing for this day and then, in the blink of an eye, you realise that this is it, it's coming to an end.

Your photos, on the other hand, will still be there in 30 years' time, the memories will not have moved an inch, every emotion will be as visible as it was on that famous day, and that's why in my eyes covering your entire wedding is so important.

TESTIMONIAL

MARGAUX & FRANCK

"I chose to hire Angel for my wedding, and I have no regrets. She is a professional photographer, who knows how to be discreet during your wedding while taking all those important moments of your big day. She knows how to bring out the joy, the love, the beauty and all the beautiful things that need to be immortalised. Angel is a service provider who is available and listens to the wishes of her clients, whether it's on the aesthetics of the photos or the way they are taken. She gives very good advice to the bride and groom, who can feel lost and stressed during the couple session. She was able to put everyone at ease and guide us so that we could have wedding photos that reflected us and our image. All our guests were amazed by her photo gallery! I recommend her 200%, you can hire her without fear. The value for money is top and so is her work, the photos speak for themselves. Thanks again to you for being part of this day so important in our lives, thanks to you, all my memories will be in my head but also in pictures, so I can relive them forever."
